Business Jet Center Oakland Doubles Fuel Sales Receives 3rd Consecutive ExxonMobil PremierSpirit Gold Award

April 30, 2008, Oakland International Airport, Oakland, CA...Business Jet Center (BJC), a leading provider of Fixed Base Operation (FBO) services, has more than doubled fuel sales in its first three years of operation at the Oakland International Airport (OAK).

Since its first full year of operation in 2004, Business Jet Center has recorded a 106 percent increase in Jet A and Avgas combined fuel sales. In addition, traffic at the Bay Area Fixed Base Operation (FBO) has increased by more than 200 percent during the same period.

"We are very pleased with the performance of our Oakland location," said Mike Wright, Founding Partner, Business Jet Center, Ltd. "The Bay Area is a great location for our brand of FBO service as business aircraft operators discover the benefits of flying into Oakland International Airport and the great hospitality we offer."

According to David Mills, General Manager of the Business Jet Center OAK facility, business remains strong through the first quarter of 2008. "During this period, we've had an increase in fuel sales of nearly 20% over the first quarter of 2007. This is shaping up to be another solid year of growth for our location."

In addition, Mills, who serves as vice Chairman of the ExxonMobil Aviat Council, said the number of aircraft based at the facility has more than tripled in the past three years to 19 after adding nearly 75,000 sq. ft. of hangar space. Currently, Business Jet Center OAK manages more than 100,000 sq. ft. of designated business and general aviation hangar, shop and office space making it one of the largest FBOs in the Bay Area.

Other business accomplishments at Business Jet Center OAK include renewal of fueling and service contracts with fractional aircraft operators Flight Options and Flexjet. Flight Options has also designated the facility a 'Platinum' location.
